SCHOOL BOARD MAY HAVE TO BORROW SOON

The Gettysburg borough school board Tuesday evening adopted its $465,850 budget for next year, based upon tax increases, and then authorized its officers to borrow up to $15,000 to get the school district through June. New taxes will start to come in during July.

The budget, which is expected to be balanced by an increase in per capita tax from $12.50 to $15 and in the real estate levy from 42 to 46 mills, was given preliminary approval by the board at a special meeting April 21.

Superintendent H. Edgar Riegler told the board that prospects are that the borough district will need a loan of about $15,000 to meet expenses to the end of this fiscal year which runs to July 5. The district owes the jointure about $49,000 and will cash a certificate of deposit for $20,000 this month to bolster its general fund balance.

Praise For Weikert

With all members of the borough board in attendance, President Robert Deardorff presided at the session held in Superintendent Riegler's office at the high school.

The board gave Tax Collector J. Herbert Weikert an oral "pat on the back" for doing "a good job" as they read names on which Weikert was asking exonerations because of duplications, removals, death or errors. In his final report to the school district, Weikert promised to continue to collect some unpaid per capita taxes with the use of wage attachments. Only two liens had to be filed for unpaid real estate taxes.

No Driver Class

Weikert asked exonerations on taxes amounting to "less than one per cent" of the total duplicate, directors noted. He had $260,440 turned over to him for collection and he added $194.67 in names missed from the original duplicate. He asked exonerations totaling about $2,300. It was a short list than last year, board members said.

Riegler reported that there have been only "three or four" inquiries about the proposed summer adult driving course and it will not be offered.

The board adopted a resolution authorizing the register and recorder to collect transfer tax on any properties on which the state makes an extra assessment for a similar tax at the state level.

"First Lady" In Hospital

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower entered Walter Reed Army Hospital Tuesday for treatment of an attack of acute asthmatic bronchitis, the White House announced today.

Doctors reported today that the First Lady is "as comfortable as she can be" under the circumstances, press secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen.

He added that she is feeling better than Tuesday and has very little fever.

He said Mrs. Eisenhower would remain under treatment for "a short while"—presumably, only a few days.

Mrs. Eisenhower, 63, has had such attacks before, Hagerty said, but none as severe as the current one.

Mrs. Eisenhower's asthmatic attacks have not previously been announced by the White House, but at a flower show recently it was reported that she suffered from an allergy to roses. The White House did not confirm this.

In the seven years she has been in the White House, the First Lady has had no major illnesses. She underwent a major operation, a hysterectomy, at Walter Reed in August 1957 and was hospitalized more than three weeks.

Mrs. Eisenhower had rheumatic fever as a child and it left her with a slight heart condition. White House physician, Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder once described the condition as "a murmur which the doctors keep tabs on."

Announcement of Mrs. Eisenhower's hospitalization increased speculation that she will not accompany the President on his trip to the Far East next month.

TREATED AT HOSPITAL

Lyman Myers, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Myers, Thurmont, R. 2, was treated Tuesday at the Warner Hospital for contusions of the abdomen sustained when he was struck by a baseball bat.

Walter Recard, 50, R. 3, received treatment Tuesday after being kicked in the eye by a horse.

Adams House Is Sold Today For $60,000

The Adams House and the Eberhart Apartments, for many years known as the Eagle Hotel, a landmark in this area, was sold today to the Gettysburg Construction Company for $60,000.

The huge building, badly damaged in a fire several months ago, has been stripped of its top floor and much of the debris hauled away.

S. Blaine Miller, speaking for the buyers, said they plan to renovate the Eberhart Apartments and are contemplating tearing down the remainder of the front of the building and building three store rooms.

"We felt that the location was too valuable to be wasted and that if the building can be renovated and rebuilt it will add considerable to the value of that section of the business district," Miller said. "However, our plans are not definite as yet but we plan an announcement in the early future," he said.

DR. HUFFMAN ELECTED HEAD OF NEW CHURCH

Dr. Gordon S. Huffman of Washington, D. C., was elected the first president of the Eastern District of The American Lutheran Church on the second ballot at the opening session of the new Eastern District constituting convention this morning at Gettysburg College.

Dr. Huffman who had been president of the old Eastern District of the American Lutheran Church, received 265 of 280 ballots cast.

Prior to his election in 1958 Dr. Huffman was pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Butler, Pa., where he served 12 years.

The recently elected president of The American Lutheran Church, Dr. Fredrik A. Schlotz, officiated at the opening session of the district and conducted the election. The American Lutheran Church is a merger of three Lutheran church bodies that will become official on January 1, 1961.

This afternoon at the second session of the district, Dr. Raymond M. Olson, stewardship director of The American Lutheran Church, presented the program of the finance department of the new church. The proposed budget for 1961 for the new district is $62,750.

Eastern District Ends
The Eastern District of the American Lutheran Church went out of existence Tuesday night with a fellowship banquet, a pictorial history of 29 years of activity and a solemn worship service in Christ Chapel on the Gettysburg College campus.

Following the banquet the clerical and lay delegates of the 30 congregations of the district located in Ohio, which are to be transferred to the new Ohio District of the American Lutheran Church, sang their farewells to the delegates of the congregations which will remain in the new district. Five of the ten largest congregations in the old district are in Ohio.

After a review through pictorial of the 29 years of the district, which stretches from Maine to Florida, the convention held its closing service in Christ Chapel. The Rev. James Long, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Massillon, Ohio, and vice president of the district, read the conclusion. (Continued On Page 3)

CHECK ON YARDS

According to a borough police report, an official of the state Health Department Tuesday afternoon inspected back yards at the home of Norman Washington and Juan Romero and ordered them to clean up debris there or prosecution would follow.

No details were available in the report.

KIWANIS PLAN FOR PAVILION AT PARK "OK"

Gettysburg's Recreation Board Tuesday evening gave its approval, with thanks, to plans of the Kiwanis Club to construct a 20 by 32 foot picnic pavilion in Recreation Park.

Meeting at the recreation office in the high school building, the board received a report from Wayne Cluck that the Kiwanis Club will construct a large pavilion "at a site to be selected by the recreation board."

The recreation board quickly gave approval and discussed placing the pavilion in the southern part of the park—"to open that area for more use."

Program Opens June 13

An open fireplace is in the general area now and water is nearby, the board members noted. They also expressed the hope that toilet facilities may be eventually established in the pavilion area. Such a "comfort station" could serve both the picnic area and the baseball league fields in that part of the 50-acre park.

To help beautify the area—and other sections of the recreation park—the board voted to ask the borough shade tree commission to study the park with a view toward establishment of ornamental and shade trees there.

With the summer recreation program to begin June 13, the board added to its staff Patrick Kelly, backfield coach at the local high school, who will serve part-time at the Keefeauver playground. (Continued On Page 13)

Governor And President

Governor Lawrence Gives Commencement Address, Receives Degree At Mount

"Since Father DuBois and his parishioners built the first communion classroom, study hall and dormitory, Mt. St. Mary's has established an enviable academic record and its halls of learning have produced a long list of prominent graduates — 48 bishops, a chief justice of the United States, Edward White, the prominent American painter, John LaFarge, and the first American cardinal, His Eminence John Cardinal McCloskey," said Gov. David L. Lawrence, of Pennsylvania, in a commencement address at Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, this morning. He later received an honorary degree.

Continuing the governor said: "How long — as I asked the mayors of Pennsylvania's cities — we too long ago — how long can we take bigger and sleeker cars out to beat down roads which are already overcrowded? When will we recognize the false wisdom of sending our children from modern homes to attend overcrowded and under-equipped schools?"

"Curious Byproducts"
"We complain bitterly when school taxes go up $50 a year; yet we feel compelled to buy a new car when the new models are off the assembly line and pay $50 to $70 a month for it."

"These are curious byproducts of the central failure of our time — our preoccupation with material success and the subtle, but undeniable decay it has brought about in our moral fibre. At some point, we must balance our economic position with our national philosophical convictions — and we have to become firm in our resolve."

"We have become soft and lazy. We 'let George do it.' If things don't go well, we try to get someone else to do our job for us. The practice of bucking responsibility is so widespread that it draws hardly a comment when it happens in our offices and our homes."

TOPSY-TURVY WEATHER IS ROUTINE IN '60

This year's weather has been on the topsy-turvy side. March was the coldest March in Gettysburg in 57 years of continuous weather records and then followed the warmest April in 15 years.

This year saw the first snowless January in a decade and February was the snowiest since 1947 and the wettest in more than 20 years.

Now that complete figures for May are in, it turns out that much of May was cooler than April although in most years the reverse has been true.

The month that ended Tuesday was the coolest May here since 1956 and the wettest since 1953. Measurable amounts of rain fell on 18 days last month and traces of rain on two other days. Rainfall totaled 6.42 inches, which is 2.42 inches above the normal four-inch total for the month.

May weather is expected to be considerably warmer than April, but this year each May day averaged only about three degrees warmer than the daily average for April. The figures were 56.3 degrees for April and 59.8 degrees for May. The May average was 2.1 degrees below normal May.

Spy Planes-Made More Than 200 Long Flights Since '56

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
WASHINGTON (AP)—A spokesman for the nation's space agency testified today that high-flying U2 planes have made more than 200 weather flights covering about 264,000 miles since 1956.

He said his agency did not know just where the planes flew until "after the fact."

"These flights have been conducted in the United States, western Europe, Turkey and Japan," Hugh L. Dryden, deputy administrator for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said.

Dryden, in testimony to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, pictured the missions as information-gathering for research work—not spying.

He explained that NASA, in doing its job of research on improving aircraft development and operations, arranged to put instruments on planes, military and commercial. He said it has "co-

FATHER SHOT BY HIS SON HUNTING RATS

Richard G. Musselman, 47, Gettysburg R. 3, was treated at the Warner Hospital Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock for gunshot wounds of the chest and arm suffered when he and his son sought to kill rats in a barn.

State police said Musselman, his wife, Margaret, and son, Eugene M. Musselman, 21, went to a barn which has been converted to farm machine shop at the Musselman property along the road from Van Dyke's Corner to Mummaburg.

Their intention was to kill rats in the structure and the son stood in an area, facing into the barn, holding a 410 gauge shotgun preparatory to shooting the rats as they ran out along the wall of the barn.

The elder Musselman went to the other side of the barn and used a sledge hammer to pound on the wall to disturb the rats so that they would run into the path of his son's shotgun blast.

The elder Musselman hampered, a rat ran out along the wall. According to police the son fired at the rat and the pellets passed through the one-inch siding of the barn and struck the elder Musselman.

The accident occurred at 5:40 o'clock Tuesday evening.

PREDICT SHORT APPLE CROP IN PENNSYLVANIA

Members of the Pennsylvania Fruit Marketing Cooperative, meeting Tuesday evening in Arendtsville, heard predictions of an eastern apple crop from 30 to 40 per cent smaller than last year with some indication that the short crop in fresh market varieties would tend to cut back supplies available to the processors.

Some 40 members representing most of the fruit producing counties of the state attended the second annual meeting of the organization.

In addition to election of directors and officers, the membership heard a report on the activities of the last year. With a total membership of 228 fruitgrowers representing approximately 50 per cent of the apple tonnage of the state, Pennsylvania was cited by guest speaker Kenneth Robinson of Winchester, Va., as one of the outstanding grower organizations in the Appalachian area.

Loft Gives Report

Robinson declared that bargaining organizations such as this are "catching on" in both Michigan and New York and that California will organize grower "co-ops" and expects to bargain with processors this season. He also noted the special interest taken by the American Farm Bureau in the processing fruit and vegetable industry.

DRIVER CHARGED

Edward F. Brewer, Waynesboro, has been charged before Justice of the Peace John O. Whitman, Cumberland Twp., by state police with making a bad pass. The charge followed investigation of a May accident. A 10-day notice has been sent.

38 CRASHES HERE IN MAY

Thirty-eight auto crashes were investigated by state police from the local substation during May, according to the recapitulation of the officers' activities prepared by Sgt. Joseph Tappe.

Two persons were fatally injured and 30 less seriously hurt while property damage totaled $26,175, in the 38 accidents.

The figures compare to three killed, 32 injured and damage totaling $27,187 in 38 auto accidents investigated in the same month a year ago. In April of this year there were 35 accidents in which one person was killed, 27 injured and property damage totaled $40,045.

During last month the local state policemen made 170 arrests on traffic code violations including 32 brought as a result of the accident investigations. They also made 20 investigations on criminal matters and brought nine arrests on criminal charges.

Delay Swim Classes To Early June

Because of changes and improvements at the Battletide Swimming Pool that may not be complete until early July and because that is the only pool in the Gettysburg area that will be available for Red Cross swimming classes this summer, the Red Cross announced today a change in previous plans for the 1960 water safety program.

The June 20 opening of swimming classes at the Battletide Pool has been postponed until July 5, it was announced by Mrs. Peggy P. Hill, executive secretary. The swimming instruction period, originally scheduled to end late in July, will be extended into the first two weeks of August.

Mrs. Hill said it will be necessary for youngsters who have been registered for classes that were to begin June 20 to re-register for the period from August 1 to 12.

A new filter system and other improvements are being made at the Battletide Pool but are expected to be complete in time for the Red Cross classes to start Tuesday, July 5, Mrs. Hill said.

The Crouse Pool, near Littlestown, will be used for swimming classes for Littlestown area Cubs and probably also for Girl Scouts, beginning July 18 and continuing for a two-week period.

SAFARI PLANS ARE OUTLINED

Final plans for the Haines Safari and for the Catholic Boy Scout retreat were outlined Tuesday evening at a meeting of the Cub Scout, Boy Scout and Explorer Scout round tables in Gettysburg High School.

Plans were also given for summer camping and for the various events to be conducted by the units in observance of the Golden Jubilee of Scouting this year.

Most of the session was in the form of a question and answer period in which individual leaders asked questions concerning activities of his unit in connection with the Golden Jubilee program which calls for each unit to take part in special public service projects and for each youth to make advancements and take part in physical conditioning activities.

The Catholic Boy Scout retreat will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday at Camp Coneago, near Dick's Dam, it was announced. Cost will be $2.20 for insurance and three meals Saturday and one Sunday. The camp will begin after supper Friday evening. Each Scout will provide his own tenting and mess gear. Catholic Scout units will be provided with camping sites and in addition Catholic youths who are members of units in which membership is mixed may attend "on their own."

Lawrence Long, McSherrytown, will be cook for the retreat.

It was announced that Explorers are asked to assist with parking at the Adams County Home Visiting Day and bazaar June 25.

DECIDE SOON ON RESERVE BUILDING SITE

Final decision on where the new training center for the 100-member Army Reserve unit in Adams County is to be located will be given next Wednesday, it was decided at noon today with the close of a meeting of Army Reserve officials and others with the county commissioners.

Major General J. Calvin Frank, commanding officer of the 79th Division of which the local Army Reserve unit is a component, said at the conclusion of the meeting that he would report back next Wednesday on decisions of the Pentagon concerning various proposals that have been submitted within the last few days on the proposed center.

General Willard S. Paul, president of Gettysburg College, this morning informed General Frank and the other Army representatives that he had received assurances that the money available for the construction of the new training center will be held in escrow for the local project until final decisions are made on a site.

Old Site "Last Resort"

The college president had suggested the possibility of the Army Reserve and ROTC programs uniting in construction of one large military training center for use by both programs.

Joseph Kemper, chief of facilities for the 21st Army District, Indianapolis Gap, assured the group that the plans for the proposed 100-man training center have been so drawn that it could be expanded to a 200-man center or larger without difficulty.

Whether joint use could be made of the structure will be up to Washington, however, and General Frank said he anticipates receiving an answer during a meeting this week with officials there.

Meantime the Fairfield Rd. site for a proposed training center seemed to be cleared "as a last resort."

Objections Vanish

The commissioners told the Army Reserve representatives that they "have no objections" to the construction of the Army center on land of Ralph Deatrick along the Fairfield Rd. near the

Plan Rt. 15 Hearing In Late Summer

A public hearing will be held "late this summer" on the proposal to construct a Route 15 bypass around Gettysburg, District State Highway Engineer J. C. Whalen told the Adams County commissioners and Burgess Wilbur L. Plank at a meeting of the commissioners at the court house this morning.

Whalen and District Engineer R. H. Eisminger outlined the details of the proposed construction of a new highway around the town, about a mile to two miles east of here.

Neither of the engineers would be more specific about the exact location than had been a previous notice by the state Department of Highways of its intent to construct the bypass from roughly the present York Springs bypass to the Maryland line where the road will meet the proposed Maryland construction of Route 15 bypassing Emmitsburg.

Both promised that the construction work will "be completed by 1963" but said there was a possibility that all that will be finished by that time will be two lanes of the proposed four-lane road. However the two lanes would be available for traffic in time for the celebration of the centennial of the Battle of Gettysburg, they said.

Both engineers said a few township roads will be "cut off" as a result of the proposed bypass. While in some instances access of the township roads across the proposed bypass may be changed from present locations, it was anticipated "there will be very few roads cut off."

Receive Donations To Disaster Fund

The Red Cross reported additional donations to its Chile earthquake disaster fund today. There were gifts of $5 each from Mrs. Jean G. Richardson, Mrs. Earl J. Bowman and Mrs. Clyde B. Stover and an anonymous donation of $2.

It was announced Tuesday that the Red Cross is accepting donations for the relief of homeless and injured in the Chile earthquake disaster area. Emergency funds and workers already have been dispatched and the people of the United States are being called upon to help through the Red Cross.

ALABAMA IS FEUDING OVER STATE'S VOTES

By REX THOMAS

Loyalist Democrats staked a claim on five of Alabama's 11 electoral votes today and hoped to preserve them for the party nominee in the presidential election.

But defiant states righters had a tenacious grip on the remaining six, and threatened to withhold them from the national party if it nominates a presidential candidate distasteful to the South.

Uncounted returns from Tuesday's Democratic runoff primary held the final answer. Many of loyalist strongholds of north Alabama, but several states rights counties also were unreported.

With 10 seats on the Electoral College at stake—and 10 from each faction—incomplete returns showed five states righters and five loyalists leading the field for Democratic nomination.

Named Without Runoff
The 11th place was filled in the first primary May 3. States righter Bruce Henderson of Prairie, Ala., was nominated without a runoff.

The states righters were sworn to withhold their votes from the national party nominee if he is repugnant to the "peculiar racial problems of the South."

Loyalists promised to support the national party. Refusing to accept segregation as the real issue, they argued that a division in party ranks could serve only to benefit the Republicans in the presidential election.

Returns in the election of Democratic convention delegates showed candidates favorable to Sens. Lyndon Johnson of Texas and Richard B. Russell of Georgia among the leaders.

Seventeen more delegates were chosen to take seats at Los Angeles with the 39 who were elected in the first primary. Each delegate, and the national committee man and committeewoman, will have half a vote.

M'PHAIL AT CONVENTION

Attorney John A. MacPhail, president of the Gettysburg Rotary Club, served as vice chairman and had the duty of summing up the two-hour discussion at its close at a meeting on "Law" held as part of the international convention of Rotary at Miami Beach this week.

Chairman for the session held in the Hotel Algiers Monday afternoon was William C. Carter of London, England. More than 80 attorneys from throughout the U.S. and five foreign countries took part in the session designed to explore additional ways in which attorneys can serve their community.

The meeting on law was one of 53 simultaneous seminars by representatives of various professions and trades ranging from advertising to transportation.

The convention ends Thursday with talks by Dr. Victor Andres Belandue, of Peru, president of the United Nations General Assembly; Harold T. Thomas, Auckland, New Zealand, retiring president of Rotary; and J. Edd McLaughlin, Dallas, Tex., the incoming president.

2 Girls Earn $900 For European Trip

SEATTLE (AP) — "You'd be surprised how hard it is to get $900 by getting it 50 cents at a time."

But Bonnie Brodine, 17, and her sister, Vickie, 16, got it, and they're on their way to Europe to spend it.

They visited Europe four years ago with their parents and liked it so much they decided they'd go again.

They earned the money babysitting, clerking and working in the public library.

The girls will be on their own until they return home to Seattle about Aug. 23.

$2,200,000 Bridge Has No Approaches

YARDELY, Pa. (AP) — There's a $2,200,000 bridge across the Delaware River just aching for cars. It's been spanning the river from Yardley to Scudders Falls, just north of Trenton, N. J., since last fall, but no one has used it.

No one can. The approaches haven't been built. That's the job of the highway departments in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. The Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission was far ahead of schedule in building the bridge, a commission spokesman said Tuesday, and the departments a bit behind.

The target date for completion is this fall.

COPS TOO LENIENT

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Donald C. Wagner, the city's managing director, says policemen have been ignoring too many traffic law violations.

He said those caught ignoring moving violations will be charged with neglect of duty.

April had two days of 90-degree weather with a high of 92 but May had only four days of 80-degree weather and the month's hottest day was 84 the afternoon of May 21. The average high in May was 69.64 degrees and the average daily low was 49.97 degrees.

Surplus For 1960

The May showers that followed the driest April in five years gave the first five months of the year a surplus of 1.68 inches of rain. Going into May, the year was three-fourths of an inch short of normal. Precipitation for the first five months has totaled 18.21 inches.

Although there was a number of frosts recorded—and freezing temperatures in rural parts of the county—no freezing weather was encountered in Gettysburg in May. May 2 was the chilliest morning of the month and the low that day was 34 degrees. Temperatures also were in the 30's for the next two nights, giving upper end fruitmen some uneasy times.

Thundershowers, fogs, strong winds and a bit of hail were among the special weather phenomena noted during May.

Damage was estimated at $100 to each of the cars and $25 to the bus.

The Rt. Rev. John L. Sheridan P.A., president of the college presided at the convocation.

Following the honors convocation the Rev. Lawrence E. Skelly, Litchfield, Conn., preached the baccalaureate address in the college chapel.

Rev. Fr. Skelly urged the graduates not to "talk great things but to live them."

"You must be," he said, "men of courage and conviction, boldly, openly and firmly declaring your stand on the vital moral problems of the day. Yes, the church, this country, this world of ours, needs men and women who find their inspiration and determination in the group of immortals, the first Christians, who found the friendship of Christ of more value than their very blood."

Warns States To Set Safety Codes

LAKE PLACID, N. Y. (AP) — Leland S. Harris, executive secretary of the American Society of Motor Vehicle Administrators, warns that the federal government may step in with a standard highway-safety code unless states act.

"By entering into interstate compacts on traffic safety, we would, in fact, be preserving states' rights," Harris told the opening session Tuesday of the annual conference of the association's northeast region.

William S. Hults, New York state motor vehicle commissioner, praised Pennsylvania's 13-point traffic-safety program.

"I would be very remiss," Hults said, "if I did not recognize this tremendous contribution to the region's record for leadership in the field."

diency. We cannot sign away the birthright of American freedom for a Cain's purse of glitter, gold and greed.

"However, even if the school is the subject of honest criticism and review, none of us — family, church, government — can evade a portion of the responsibility for the poor preparation we gave the American soldiers who cracked under the Chinese brainwashing.

Need Leadership
"Instead of training young men and women to fit, neatly, into a comfortable niche of financial security, we must bring out in them those qualities of leadership which are the lifeblood of our nation."

"As college graduates, this is your basic challenge. You must be leaders instead of followers. As trained thinkers, you must be willing to act in the best interests of your family, your community, your state and your nation — without hesitation and without fear."

"But it is evident to many of us that it is time for a reaffirmation of moral values in all parts of human life — in our homes, schools, churches, and in our government."

SEATO SECOND SECRET MEET HELD TODAY

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Western Big Three strategy meeting was arranged for late today following the second secret session of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter invited Britain's Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville to the private meeting.

The Western foreign affairs chiefs were expected to conduct a private post mortem on the summit conference collapse and scan the future for what the Communists might do over the next few months.

They are here for sessions of the SEATO Council of Ministers, which includes also the prime ministers of Australia and New Zealand and the foreign ministers of the Philippines, Thailand and Pakistan.

Lloyd, Herter To Speak
Both Lloyd and Herter were to address the council, completing a round of speechmaking, before the delegates got down to more concrete details in the four-day session.

Tuesday's speakers were said to have agreed in blaming Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev for the summit blowup. They spoke about the danger of a Red Chinese push now in places under SEATO's defense umbrella, such as the tiny kingdom of Laos in Southeast Asia.

The delegates were reported in accord that the Communist threat must not be fought by defense alone, but also through measures to improve the lives of the impoverished millions who comprise most of Asia's population.

The Philippines, Thailand and Pakistan were said to be interested in more economic help from the others. But Western officials gave no evidence of proposing a big step in aid.

DECIDE SOON

shoe factory, now that the Army Reserve has agreed to cut the size of its proposed lot to permit roads to be constructed if need be on both sides of the Army.

Commissioners Charles Bender and E. Donald Scott explained that the commissioners had "never opposed establishment of an armory here, but we felt that these various other possibilities should be explored before final decision should be made."

Kemper, William Wolf, Washington, of the district Corps of Engineers, and General Frank were agreed that "the ideal solution would be a large training center sufficiently big to handle both the Reserve and the ROTC but held, in the words of Kemper, "a bird in the hand is worth a dozen possibilities. We have the money allocated here, for this site, if we can get the clearances all along the way. We are sure of the money to June 10 and we have to act by then or it will be assigned to some other Reserve training center, and our plans will have to go back in the hopper and compete with a 100 different plans being pushed by as many different communities with Senators, Congressmen and everyone else demanding their project be completed first. We have been at this since 1956 and I am afraid if we don't go ahead as planned it will be four more years until we reach the point where we can begin building."

Colonel Thomas Nixon said the proposal of the Army Reserve to permit space for a street on the west side of the structure, cutting its frontage from 361 to 301 feet, would "meet my objections."

He said he would ask the Cumberland supervisors and planning commission whether they would agree to use of the Deatrick lot for a training center at a meeting Thursday.

BRIEFS

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet public was told today of the death of Boris Pasternak some 36 hours after the Nobel Prize winner succumbed at his home outside Moscow.

The brief newspaper announcement made no mention of the condemnation which Soviet writers and the Soviet press heaped on the author of "Doctor Zhivago" after he was named for the Nobel Prize in literature in 1958.

TOKYO (AP) — Socialist party members decided today to resign from the lower house of the Japanese Parliament in a last-ditch move to oust Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi and block ratification of the U.S.-Japan security treaty.

Socialist executives tonight began gathering the resignations of the party's 125 members of the lower house, nearly 30 per cent of the house membership.

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) — Turkey's acting president, Lt. Gen. Cemal Adnan Menderes and his ministers will stand trial and will be barred from political activity if an investigation already under way shows evidence of misdeeds in office.

But if they are found blameless they will be free to run in the elections Gursel has promised to hold, he told a news conference Tuesday night.

GAGNON, Que. (AP) — Some 2,000 fire fighters began mop-up operations today to wipe out forest fires that, since Sunday, have threatened this mining town 550 miles northeast of Montreal.

In Montreal, a spokesman for the Quebec Cartier Mining Co. said the 353 women and children airlifted there from Gagnon Monday will not be returned until the blaze is completely under control.

PANAMA (AP) — A giant U.S. Air Force airlift to stricken Chile wound up today as the last shipment of relief supplies for earthquake victims was flown to Santiago. More than 900 tons of supplies and 700 relief workers have been airlifted 6,000 miles from the United States in six days.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — O.K. Yui, Premier of Nationalist China from 1954 to 1956, died today. He was 62.

LONDON (AP) — Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery came home from Red China Tuesday night advocating that the Communists be given Formosa.

"I believe there should be one China and not two," the former NATO deputy commander told reporters, "and that China is the one which has its government in Peiping."

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle said Tuesday night there should be no more summit conferences until the way to agreement is paved by "methodical diplomatic work."

After reasonable preparation by all four powers, De Gaulle said in a TV-radio report to the French nation, France would be ready to play host again to a top level meeting.

De Gaulle was the last of the Big Four leaders to report on the breakdown of the summit parley here two weeks ago.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Farmers' Market Opens With Capacity House; Borough Market Sparse: Gettysburg's rival indoor markets played their initial engagement here today with the market of the Adams County market-growers' association emerging with most of the honors.
In number of hucksters and patrons, the farmers' market in the Sachs building, rear of York Street, far outstripped the borough's market in the American Legion building, Baltimore Street.
In general appearances, however,
the borough's market lined the better of the engagement, patrons assorted.

Governor Selects Senator Rice To Head Commission On Anniversary Of Battle: A distinct honor was conferred upon State Senator John S. Rice, Carlisle Street, Thursday afternoon, when Governor George H. Earle announced, shortly before returning to the executive mansion in Harrisburg, his appointment as chairman of the Pennsylvania state commission to make plans and preparations for the 75th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg.

Gettysburg Fittingly Observes Memorial Day: With a straight-from-the-shoulder address by Governor George H. Earle, a large and colorful parade and solemn and soul-stirring exercises in the National Cemetery, Gettysburg observed Memorial Day today.
The exercises were imbued with a spirit of patriotic zeal and fervor in memory of those who have given their lives for their country and in honor of living veterans of the Civil War, the war with Spain and the World War.

List $158,000 Work Projects In This County: Projects for Adams and Franklin counties totalling $2,383,600 in estimated cost are dependent upon the passage of legislation pending the general assembly enabling the counties to participate in the federal work relief fund, the state planning board announced today.

Former Local Resident Heads
New Detroit Guardian Bank:
Gettysburgians and Adams counties who recall friends and acquaintances as far back as 1912 and subsequent years will be interested to know that William R.
Cation, who formerly resided on Baltzley fruit orchard and farm, near Orttanna, has been distinctly honored by Detroit bankers.
Mr. Cation has been elected president of the new Guardian De-positors' corporation, of Detroit.

I.O.O.F. Regalia Of Founder Is Given To Lodge: William D.
Armor, the only living son of a charter member of Gettysburg lodge, No. 124, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, through Lawrence M. Sheads, noble grand, on Tuesday evening presented to the local lodge a past master's regalia and jewel, the property of Robert D. Armor, principal figure in the founding of the order in Gettysburg.

May Is Coldest In History Of Weather Records Here: May, 1935, has established a record of being the coldest May in the history of weather bureau records here. Dr. Henry Stewart, government weather recorder here, said.
Up to Sunday, 118 degrees deficiency in temperature had been established here. Farmers and gardeners have found the extremely cool weather of May retarding their crops to a marked degree. Furnace fires, which were allowed to die out over the week-end, were kept going from two to three weeks longer this year than last.

farmers under contract with the agricultural adjustment administration to reduce their wheat acreage this year voted overwhelmingly to continue the

Today's Talk

MEDITATIVE REFLECTION.
It pays to think things out.
Folks who look ahead do not have to consume much time in looking back. Those who foresee are always ready for the unexpected.

Acting on untrained impulse brings many a regret. On the other hand by acquiring the habit of meditating on your actions each day and on the things you expect to do, or see done, you fortify yourself against the time when quick decision is demanded.

Meditate. Reflect. Think things out. Reason with yourself—as a habit. After all, the best fellow to consult is yourself. He knows you better than anybody else and understands you better. He is liable to be kinder to you too.
People do not consult themselves enough. They seem to present great intelligence when giving advice to someone else—but when it comes to advising themselves, they get shaky in the knees!

The best time to meditate is when you are alone—away from the activity of the day. No matter how successful you may have been during the day ask yourself if you are entirely satisfied. If you feel that you did your best.
When one faces one's self and looks into the mirror of one's self, things usually look different than expected.

It is fine to expect great things to come to pass—and then if they do not, to get right inside of the reason why. The real reason is always found within the man himself!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject "Working To Please"

Projected, 1960, by the George
Matthew Adams Service

Just Folks

THE MAN OF THE HOUR
He tossed his hat into the air
And laughed aloud with glee;
His face was wet with hard-earned sweat

And red as red could be,
He yelled aloud each chance he got,
Though once he groaned like mad
And shouted "rotten," 'coz he thought
The play he saw was bad.

Once more he hollered "Take a lead.
He'll hit it sure, I'll bet.
There's just one gone, now run and slide!
There—that is one we get."
But then a frown came to his face,
On his lips I saw a pout;
He looked because the man
He liked had just struck out.

And so it went all afternoon.
He shouted, kicked and hooted;
An honest man he called a thief,
Because he wasn't suited.
And this same man in anything
At home can see no fun;
But he'll make himself a fool each day

Now baseball has begun.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsteered away from an immediate showdown on the state delegations position at the party's presidential

Gov. Lawrence, unopposed to head the 81-vote bloc, headed off the possibility of a fight at today's the idea of imposing a unit rule.

"I am not going to try to put in any unit rule," he said. "It wouldn't work."

Compulsory Formation Of Larger School Units Seen

MORE YEARS OF LITIGATION ON TIDELANDS ARE EXPECTED NOW

HARRISBURG (AP) — Compulsory reorganization of the state's public school districts into larger units within seven years has been proposed by the Pennsylvania State Education Assn.

Testifying Tuesday before the school organization task force of Gov. Lawrence's Education Committee, Dr. G. Baker Thompson, PSEA spokesman, said:

"All personal feelings must be cast aside. We must unite to provide the best education for the boys and girls of this state."

See 1967 Deadline

As outlined by Thompson, the PSEA plan calls for the 1961 Legislature to set up a timetable for gradual unification until July 1, 1967, when all districts still not combined would be merged automatically by law.

The PSEA plan would affect all districts not now large enough to support what it called an adequate educational program.

The State Council of Education would review and revise reorganization plans where necessary and given local districts an opportunity to voice objections.

Arthur Felker, Snyder County superintendent, said that while he personally "would like the people to do it themselves" he would go along with the PSEA plan. Felker appeared as representative of the 15 seventh-class counties.

Feeling Of Unanimity

Carl Driscoll, Sullivan County superintendent, appearing on behalf of the nine eighth-class counties, said bluntly:

"It's the Legislature's right to set them (districts) up; it's the Legislature's right to tear them down. I can see no reason for fooling around with something that is wrong."

The two representatives said that among the county superintendents there "was quite a feeling of unanimity" that the best reorganization plan for them was to combine all districts in each of the counties into the county-wide district.

Boundaries Set

The courts still must decide just how the newly defined areas are to be measured.

The question of who owns the submerged lands was settled in 1954, when the Supreme Court upheld the Submerged Lands Act of 1953. That law gave the jurisdiction to the states involved instead of the federal government. That law said the states should have their historic seaward boundaries as of the time they joined the union, and this was the crux of the argument.

of a pre-holiday estimate of 375
made by the National Safety Council.

REPORTERS DIG
THRU EXPENSE
ACCOUNT BILLS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dozens of expense account bills of House members have been altered or amended in recent years, the Knight newspapers said today.

In a copyrighted dispatch, reporters Don Oberdorfer and Walter Pincus said House records show that "congressmen spent tax dollars on trips to resort areas, on night clubbing and tipping aboard luxury liners."

The receipts supporting the expense account claims then were altered in some instances, the story said, to show different purposes for the expenditures.

Open To Public

It said "expense accounts of only a few members of the House are involved in the unusual expense bills. In those checked while the records were still public, alterations or amendments appeared on hotel bills of more than 20 percent or former congressmen."

The story said the records in the House disbursing office "had long been public documents open to public inspection."

"House officials threw a secrecy cloak around the (records) after learning of press interest a few days ago. The door to the fund record room was locked and all access to the public sealed off."

Investigation Chiefly

The story said the practices
"are concentrated in the expense accounts of House investigating committees — the very groups which have been busy scrutinizing everybody else. But nobody investigates the investigators."

It cited as an example bills of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel in Honolulu to Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark.), in which the word food in parentheses was written in after separate charges marked "bar."

Harris is chairman of the Legislative Oversight subcommittee, which recently investigated payola practices in the disc jockey business.

"Certainly Not Proper"

The story quoted Harris as commenting he does not have "the slightest idea" who made the food notations after the bar charges on the hotel bill.
"I don't approve of bar payments (being charged to the government). I have never knowingly approved a bar charge," Harris said.

The story said Rep. Omar Burleson (D-Tex) has "ultimate responsibility" for expense account supervision as chairman of the Committee on House Administration.

It said Burleson commented he was not aware of defaced hotel bills or bar bills and said "there have been a lot of loose practices. Such charges are certainly not proper."

SPECTER OF REVOLUTION
HAUNTS KOREA

By JAMES CARY
SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—The specter of counterrevolution haunts the new government of South Korea.

So far there is no actual evidence of an organized plot to overthrow Acting President Huh Chung.

But there are strange stirrings.
They probably were partly responsible for ex-President Syng-man Rhee's sudden flight to Honolulu Sunday.

Likely Elements

In the talk of antirevolution and counterrevolution, elements most commonly mentioned are: Rhee's now-discredited Liberal party; ex-Premier Lee Bum Suk's fascist-like "Blue Shirt" movement, now resurgent and renamed the National Independence League; a new reputedly leftist group, the Young Guardians of the Republic; some wealthy conservatives and perhaps some military figures.

The key to the situation is the provisional government's investigation into the rigging of the March 15 presidential election which triggered the April students' revolt that toppled Rhee.

So far the investigation has jailed nine members of Rhee's last 11-man cabinet, a minister from a previous cabinet, two former presidents of the Korean Reconstruction Bank, one Bank of Korea governor and a vice governor, two former national police directors, the chief of the presidential palace police, the 13 members of the election planning committee, two former provincial governors, a former mayor of Seoul

Rotary Edges Lions 6-5 In LL Opener; Winners Secure But One Safety

A five-run uprising in the top of the fifth enabled the Rotary to capture a close 6-5 decision from the Lions Tuesday evening at the recreation field as the Gettysburg Little League inaugurated its season.

Burgess Wilbur L. Plank tossed out the first ball after he had made a few short remarks directed towards the Little Leaguers. Fred Tilberg, league president, in his message said, "We are indebted to the managers and coaches and all board members for their help in getting the season underway."

The Rotary team scored all its runs on 12 walks and three hit batsmen. Johnny Flynn secured the Rotary's only safe hit as he beat out an infield grounder.

The Lions moved ahead in quick order in the first two frames by crossing the plate four times on six well hit balls. David Bream teed off for the first homerun of the season as he belted a four-bagger over the leftfield fence in the bottom of the fifth to lead off the inning. The only other extra base hit was a double by Terry Helwig in the third.

Bill Deal and Daniel Bream were the heavy hitters as each batted out two. John Flynn was the winning hurler with Ron Newman being charged with the loss.

Eastern League
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Corky Johnson's back in top form and the streaking Springfield Giants have made it 12 wins out of their last 13 games to maintain their 4½ game lead in the Eastern League.

Johnson, who couldn't get it in his last two starts, beat Reading 4-1 Tuesday night on a seven-hitter for his seventh victory without a loss.

The Giants handed Pete Olson (4-1) his first loss this year, getting a total of 10 hits. They picked up a pair of runs in the third on two singles and Carl Boles' double and added single runs in the seventh and eighth.

In the only other game Lancaster scored a run in the ninth on two Allentown errors to defeat the A-Sox 7-6. Binghamton at Williamsport was rained out.

George Moton (4-2) third Allentown pitcher, was charged with the loss when Ted Schreiber's error on Spencer Scott's grounder with the bases loaded allowed the winning run to cross home plate. Fred Burdette (2-1) was the winner in relief. George Lewis belted a two-run homer in the seventh to give Allentown a 6-5 lead but Lancaster tied the score in the same inning when Scott singled home a run.

ST. PADDY WINS DERBY

EPSOM, England (AP)—British-owned St. Paddy, carrying the colors of Sir Victor Sassoon, won the 181st running of the Epsom Derby today.

Alcaeus, trained in Ireland, finished second in the field of seventeen 3-year-olds that started the 1½-mile classic. Another Irish colt, Kythnos, was third.

This was the fourth derby victory for Sir Victor, the international banker. He won in 1953, 1957 and 1958.

The French colt Angers, the 2-1 favorite owned by Mrs. Ralph B. Strassburger of Norristown, Pa., and Paris, finished back in the pack.

St. Paddy, ridden by Lester Piggott, started at 7-1 odds. Alcaeus was 10-1, and Kythnos, 7-1.

St. Paddy finished three lengths ahead of Alcaeus, and Kythnos was another half-length behind.

Piggott kept St. Paddy in a forward position throughout. When the real running began in the last three-eighths of a mile, he shot the British colt to the front and the issue never was in doubt.

INJURIES AND WEATHER HURT MILWAUKEE

By FRANK ECK
Associated Press Sports Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—One of these days—or nights—Manager Charlie Dressen is going to pull the miracle of Milwaukee by getting his varsity players on the field simultaneously.

The new skipper of the Braves, whose pitching rotation has been knocked cock-eyed by 12 postponements, almost pulled the trick Tuesday night.

Only this time Red Schoendienst, still one of the game's finest competitors, was out with a swollen left ankle. A foul from his bat bruised the ankle in Pittsburgh on Memorial Day.

As the Braves bowed to the Phillies 12-7, leftfielder Wes Covington and first baseman Joe Adcock were in Milwaukee's starting lineup together for the first time this season.

Crandall In Slump
Del Crandall, hitting .198, turned the catching over to Charley Lau. Crandall got in the game as a pinch hitter for Lau in the sixth, but failed to get a hit. Crandall then went into catch what few pitches got past Philadelphia's hitters.

Covington, hobbled by a bad right heel, has started in only six games for the Braves this spring. And while he was starting, Adcock was out with a bad back. Big Joe missed 10 games.

In the last 17 games, the Braves have out-hit their opponents only three times.

Adcock Leads Loop
After the Memorial Day games, Adcock was leading both leagues in hitting with a .359 mark on 29 hits for 82 at bats. However, he needed three more times at bat to be the official leader.

Tuesday night Adcock hit a run-scoring single in four efforts but Covington went hitless in four attempts.

Hank Aaron, defending national league batting champion who earlier had his sights around .400, may have snapped a slump during which he was retired 11 straight times on infield plays. Aaron singled once in four trips.

"The rain has hurt us," said Dressen today. "We haven't played more than five straight days. I just can't manage in the rain."

Philly Promoter Seeks Title Bout

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A Philadelphia boxing promoter says he will offer lightweight champion Joe Brown $50,000 to meet fourth-ranked hometown Len Mathews here in a title fight in July, preferably in Connie Mack Stadium.

Promoter Al Lewis said Tuesday night "We are sending telegrams to both Brown and Anthony Macaroni, National Boxing Assn. chairman, to inform them of our plans."

Tuesday New York Madison Square Garden matchmaker Teddy Brenner announced an offer to Brown of $40,000 or 40 per cent of the gate receipts for a match with Mathews on July 25 or Aug. 2.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Confident Lou Boudreau says, "Don't worry, Cub fans, Ernie Banks is hitting again, and Jerry Kindall, the new kid at second, is working out fine."

Banks, the National League's most valuable player the past two seasons, hit a homer, double and triple Tuesday night in Chicago's 9-1 victory over San Francisco.

Kindall, called up from Houston May 13 to replace the traded Tony Taylor, drove in three runs with two doubles.

HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPIONS GET TOGETHER

By JACK HAND
NEW YORK (AP)—Ingemar Johansson beamed as he posed with such great former champions as Jack Dempsey and Joe Louis. The occasion was the setting up of a new heavyweight championship trophy, donated by the old Manassas Mauler.

"I first met Dempsey in 1961 when I came over here with a European amateur boxing team," said the current heavyweight king. "I met him again in this same place (Dempsey's midtown restaurant) when I was preparing for the first fight with Floyd Patterson."

"Then I met him last winter in Sweden when he was trying to help set up the rematch. He did a good job. He was very fair the whole time. Other people did things he didn't know about but he was very fair."

Takes Day Off
Dempsey had represented the interests that sold the rematch contract to the Feature Sports, Inc., the promoters of the June 20 bout at the Polo Grounds.

Johansson took a day off Tuesday. His fiancée, Birgit Lundgren, was with him. Earlier he had visited a furniture manufacturer to acquire some furnishings for his new home in Geneva, Switzerland.

"I will relax for five days before the fight," said Johansson. "I did the same thing last year, you will remember, I do it to get my body full of power."

He and his fiancée were present at a news conference to announce a new trophy to go to the winner of the June 20 fight. The winner actually will get a replica of the big bronze trophy which will remain permanently at Dempsey's.

CHICAGO (AP)—Willie Pastrano, unbeaten in three fights this year, is a 2-1 favorite in a light-heavyweight bout tonight with Chicago's Sonny Ray.

The 10-rounder in Chicago Stadium will be televised (ABC, 9 EST) and scored under the five-point-must system.

Pastrano, who now lives in Miami Beach, Fla., after beginning his career in New Orleans, is a dancing, bobbing battler with little punching power.

CUBS BUMP GIANTS AGAIN AS BUCS GAIN

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
What's with the San Francisco Giants? Don't they know they're back home, where all that good pitching is supposed to pay off?

They won 14 of their first 19 games at spanning new Candlestick Park. But now the Chicago Cubs have taken two of three there, knocking out three of the Giants top pitchers and dropping them 1½ games behind the National League-leading Pittsburgh Pirates.

After jarring the Giants out of a share of the lead with a split in a Memorial Day doubleheader, the Cubs won 9-1 Tuesday night against southpaw Johnny Antonelli. The Pirates defeated Cincinnati 4-3 in 11 innings at Pittsburgh.

Phils Cut Loose
Last place Philadelphia cut loose for six runs in the eighth inning and whipped Milwaukee 12-7. Los Angeles rapped St. Louis 8-3.

The Cubs, responsible for three of the Giants' seven defeats at spacious Candlestick, got this one on a pair of doubles by Jerry Kindall, good for three runs, and homers by Ernie Banks and Bob Will. Banks socked his 10th in the first inning off Antonelli. He also had a triple and double.

Glen Hobbie (4-6) was the winner, losing a shutout when he walked Willie McCovey and hit Orlando Cepeda ahead of a pair of infield outs in the second inning.

Clemente On Top Again
Roberto Clemente, regaining the NL bat lead at .353, singled with the bases loaded in the 11th for the Pirates. It was Pittsburgh's fourth straight victory and 14th in the last 19 games.

Elroy Face (4-3) won his fourth in a row with two innings of shut-out relief, leaving the bases loaded in the 10th and 11th.

Two walks and a bunt single by Dick Groat, who had five of the Bucs' 13 hits, set up Cal McLish (2-4) for the loss. McLish was the sixth of eight Redleg pitchers.

Less For Burdette
The Phils tagged the loss on Lew Burdette (3-2), working in relief, while handing Milwaukee a fourth straight defeat. Bobby Del Greco and Pancho Herrera each drove in three runs for Philadelphia. Rookie Chris Short (2-0) won it in relief.

A tie-breaking grand slam home run by Norm Sherry, his first major league slam, won it for the Dodgers in the sixth against Ron Kline (2-4). Stan Williams (3-0) struck out eight, but gave up six-inning homers by Bill White and Ken Boyer and needed Larry Sherry's relief help for the victory.

Kravitz Traded For Hank Foiles

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates traded catcher Danny Kravitz to the Kansas City Athletics Tuesday for catcher Hank Foiles and an undisclosed sum of cash.

Foiles was sold to the Athletics by the Pirates just last December after three years with the club. He has been assigned to Columbus of the International League.

Kravitz had been with the Pirates part-time since 1956 and full-time since 1958. He was hitless in six times at bat this year.

The Pirates also announced recall of outfielder Joe Christopher from their Salt Lake City club in the Pacific Coast League.

The trade was the second for the Pirates in four days. They acquired Wilmer Mizell in a four-player deal with St. Louis last Friday.

Cooperative of which Pennsylvania is one of the four state members, was introduced by Pennsylvania President William M. Lott, Gardners R. D.

Mr. Lott in his annual report gave credit to the four-state bargaining group for holding the apple price steady last year. He cited Pennsylvania processors as "cooperative" and said that in this area grower committees had received favorable receptions from them. He predicted a similar attitude this year.

Officers Re-elected

In a roundup of crop estimates from members throughout the ward Elgar, the high school band will play the Star-Spangled Banner.

The salutatory address will be given by Frederick Rinehart Klunk. The public profession of faith will be given by the graduating class under the direction of Rev. Richard F. Hartnett, executive assistant to the principal. Charles LeRoy Hemler will deliver the valedictory address followed by the presentation of the class by Rev William R. Lyons, principal of Delone.

The exercises will conclude with remarks by Monsignor McGee followed by the recessional, "Fidèle Pontificale," by Reginald Martin. The guest organist will be Mrs. Bernard B. Henry, organist from Annunciation parish, McSherrystown.

state, it was agreed that "it looks like a short crop with Red Delicious very scarce in many sections of the state." Since the predicted shortage of Delicious would send other varieties into the fresh market, more processing apples will be needed, it was pointed out.

Reports from Virginia noted that south of Stanton the crop looks heavy while the Winchester area shows a shortage of Red Delicious, Stayman and Yorks. The word from West Virginia is of a crop similar to that in Pennsylvania, about 60 to 65 per cent of last year's.

Officers of the board of the marketing organization were re-elected with Mr. Lott president and Ralph W. Tyson as secretary. Henry Heisey, Mercersburg, was re-named treasurer and John Linde Jr., Orefield, vice president. These other members from Adams County were among those named to the board of directors: Fremont Kuntz, Gardners; Lloyd Benner, Fairfield, and Richard Trostle, Biglerville.

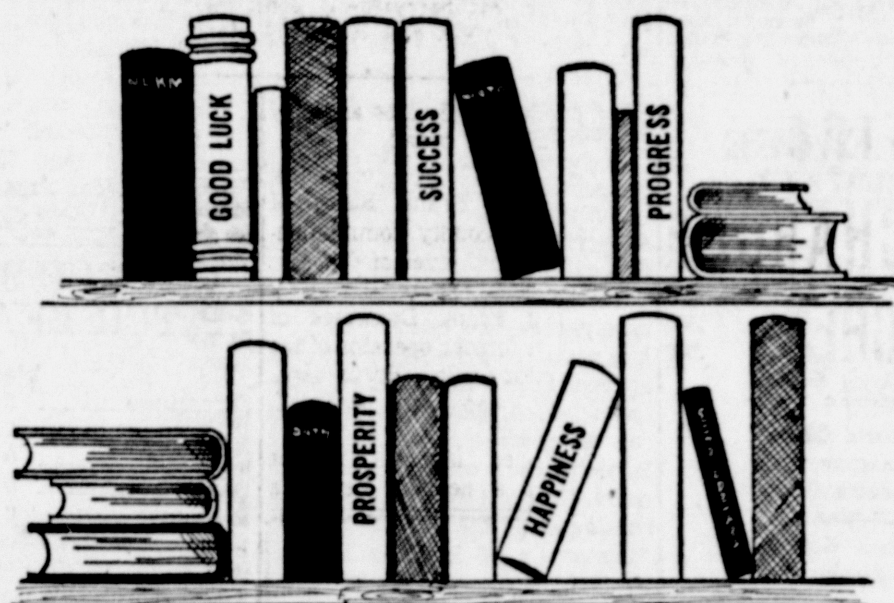

EUB Conference Held Here Sunday

The local quarterly conference of the Orrtanna Evangelical United Brethren church was held in the Memorial EUB Church of Gettysburg Sunday at 2 p.m. All three churches were represented. The following representatives were present: From Mt. Hope: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shindecker. Mrs. Allen Currens, Goldie Dudash, Leanna Lightner and Richard Sites; from Mt. Calvary, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wetzel. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kime and Glenn Adlesperger, and from Mt. Carmel, E. J. Naugle, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wetzel, Mrs. Gladys Robert, Clyde Nett and George Haenn.

Dr. Simpson B. Dougherty, conference superintendent, presided over the group session. He also conducted the devotions and presented the message. Dr. Dougherty conducted the business session for the Orrtanna charge.

Cloyd Spence was elected delegate to the annual conference to be held in Hagerstown in October. Mrs. Gladys Robert was the alternate elected. After the routine business and reports, the meeting closed with prayer by the Rev. Alfred K. Gotwalt, pastor of the Orrtanna EUB charge.

3 OFFICIALS ARE CHARGED WITH CHEATING

EBENSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Three men, two of them Cambria County officials, have been accused of cheating the county out of about $24,500 between July 1954 and July 1957 on sales of bread.

Arrested Tuesday on conspiracy charges were Frank Burns of Johnstown, a county commissioner; Joseph Smithmyer of Cresson, superintendent of the county home, and Frank Domenick of Ebensburg, former operator of the Home Baking Co. Burns and Smithmyer also were charged with extortion.

All pleaded innocent to the charges at a hearing before a justice of the peace.

Authorities said the county paid for 777,000 loaves of bread but received only 283,000 loaves during the three years.

All Free On Bond

At that time Burns was superintendent of the home. Smithmyer was his assistant and county purchasing agent and Domenick operated the baking firm. The bread was baked by Domenick's firm under an agreement with Burns, police said.

The extortion counts allege Burns received more than $3,000 and Smithmyer more than $600 during the three years.

They state the pair received "fees and awards" from Domenick "so that contracts for the purchase of bread by the County of Cambria... would be awarded to the Home Baking Co."

Burns and Smithmyer are free on $7,000 bond each. Domenick is free on $6,000 bond. The arrests came after a five-week investigation by county detectives, state police and the State Justice Dept.

State Extends Deadline Again

HARRISBURG (AP)—The deadline for acquiring 1960 commercial vehicle registrations has been extended until midnight Saturday.

Charles M. Dougherty, state secretary of revenue, said Tuesday the four-day extension was granted as a convenience to truck owners. The 1959 registrations were to have expired last midnight.

Dougherty said one factor was that the Motor Vehicles Bureau was closed Memorial Day.

GIVE JAIL AWAY

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP)—The town of Pratt, about 10 miles east of here, has given away its wooden jail.

Mayor William H. Vaughan, who serves as police court judge, said the town (pop. 600) decided to get rid of it because there has not been a single prisoner since he was elected last year.

Glasses Will Change Your Personality—If You Empty Them Often Enough Daily

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Parenthood can be a real strain on men sometimes. In one South American tribe, for example, a woman goes back to work the day after she has a baby. But the proud father takes to his hammock and rests up for a week.

Many of our oldest superstitions center around the institution of marriage. Here's an odd one: German brides believe that they will dominate their husband if they accidentally step on his foot at the altar.

Gray At 23

Sorrow came early to Mark Twain, America's greatest humorist. His hair turned gray at the age of 23 after his brother burned to death in a steamboat explosion on the Mississippi River.

"Evolution is reducing the number of teeth in man," says a Wilmington, Del., doctor. This may be true, but most of the men we know who have had the number of their teeth reduced blamed it on living, not evolution.

Our quotable notables: "The ability to make love frivolously," said Heywood Brown, "is the chief characteristic which distinguishes human beings from the beasts."

200,000 Alcoholics Yearly

Thought for today: Glasses can change your personality—especially if you empty them often enough. It is estimated that each year 200,000 Americans become alcoholics, a fate faced by one of every 15 people who drink.

Fair warning: A state police sign in Hartford, Conn., warns motorists, "He who takes one for the road will get a trooper for a chaser."

Although more than 600 million books of all kinds are printed yearly in the United States, fewer than half of all Americans ever read a book that isn't required in school. And less than one out of five ever even buys a book.

Thoughtful definition: "A diplomat," says the Catholic Digest, "is a fellow who can be disarming, even though his country isn't."

The original jazz style of music was created in the late 19th Century in New Orleans.

REMARKS THE FAMILY DOG IS TIRED HEARING

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks the family dog gets tired of hearing:

"After he's 6 months old, it isn't good for a dog to eat more than once a day."

"Sit up, Rover, and beg."

"I see by the newspaper that some old maid left $50,000 to her cat. Why is it so few people leave money to dogs?"

"We bought Rover for a watch dog, but we feel sure now that if burglars broke into the house the only thing he'd do is lead them to the silverware."

"As soon as you let him out, he decides he wants to get back in. Let him scratch at the door for a while."

"Size, Looks, Brains"

"Lassie doesn't have a thing on Rover—except size, looks, brains and a bank account."

"I wouldn't say he was exactly afraid of the cat next door. But when she comes into our yard, he's the one that tries to climb a tree."

"Even if your little boy does pull his tail, Rover won't bite. He simply adores children."

"The man at the store said this new canned dog food was much more nutritious than fresh meat, so I bought two cases."

"Let's get one thing clear, Rover—the day you start paying the rent is the day you can start sleeping on the sofa."

"We'll have to leave him at the vet's during our vacation. He may miss us, but after all there'll be a lot of other dogs there to keep him company."

Like One Of Family

"It's got so he's just like one of the family. The one I have in mind is my mother-in-law."

"Well, most dogs don't really like to be patted on the head, but Rover doesn't mind. He's too lazy to mind anything."

"What do I mean by lazy? Well, if I give him a bone, he trots out into the back yard and just stands there—waiting for me to dig a hole so he can bury it."

"A guy in the next block is buying his pooch an air-conditioned doghouse. He must be out of his mind. I don't believe in spoiling dogs."

"What a life! He spends five minutes a day eating — and 23 hours and 55 minutes sleeping."

"Sometimes his expression is almost human. If Rover could really talk, I wonder what he would say to us."

The Boy Scout Handbook, first published in 1910, sold 17,600,000 copies in its first 50 years.

HOLLYWOOD TO BUILD ITS OWN MOVIE MUSEUM

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Want to see a movie being made? Visitors to Hollywood will be able to achieve that oft-heard wish when the industry finally erects its movie museum.

After 50 years, the film business has concluded it needs a place to house its lore and traditions and to show its glamorous aspects to the public. Los Angeles County Supervisors agreed. Now plans are under way to build the museum on a 4½-acre site opposite Hollywood Bowl.

Heading the industry's effort is dynamic Sol Lesser, longtime producer. At 70, he admits to having retired three times. But can't resist coming back to make another movie or fight another cause. His present one is the museum.

Millions Visit State

"Did you know that 4½ million people come to Southern California every year?" he inquired.

"Do you know what most of them want to do? See a movie set. But nearly all of them go away disappointed. What do they see? The footprints at Grauman's Chinese and a few other things."

Lesser emphasized that the museum will not be a dusty collection of ancient memories. It will be a live affair. Among the proposed features:

1. A movie stage with glassed-in gallery. Arrangements are being made for each feature made in Hollywood to film a few scenes on the stage.

2. A TV stage where actual shows can be observed.

3. A library and graduate school for serious students of the film craft.

Other Features

4. An exhibit hall of famed props and costumes, plus a wax works.

5. A collection of every significant film ever made.

6. A theater where students could view programs of films, such as the history of comedy from Mack Sennett to today.

All this will take two years and four million dollars to build.

"It's a big project," Lesser admitted, "but we've got the enthusiasm and support of everybody in the industry. Everyone agrees we've needed this for a long, long time."

Bags 571 Geese With Net Cannon

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) — Oklahoma State University wildlife student Richard Marquardt hunts geese with cannons. Last year he bagged 571.

His hunting method is legal because he doesn't injure the birds and eventually lets them go.

Marquardt is working on a project begun in 1957. He's seeking more information about the migrating habits of several kinds of small Canada geese.

Two well-placed shots with his novel gun ensnared 192 geese at Salt Plains Wildlife Refuge, in northwest Oklahoma, one of his largest catches.

The cannons used are about 18 inches long, mounted on a square iron base. They are buried at an angle in the ground, loaded and a net attached by nylon rope to five pound projectiles in the barrel. The net is draped in folds in front of the cannon and bait is placed near the net.

As the birds feed, the guns are fired at the same instant and the net sails over the geese. Then Marquardt and his assistants remove the birds and band them with plastic neck markers.

Marquardt says about 70 bands have been returned by hunters since he started the project.

Mark Twain said: "When angry, count four; when very angry, swear."

Fairfield Lions Club Turns Back Pages Of Time To Rename Streets; Erect Signs

For the first time in her history Fairfield has street signs. She has them because the members of the Lions Club, while seeing their practical use for easy identification of residences, entered upon a project to foster pride and interest in the historical background and traditions of this Adams County town. A name taken from the pages of the past serves to recall an event, or a place, or a person to the minds of the older citizens and foster a desire on the part of the younger ones to learn about their town's history. The town council took the necessary action to make the suggestions of the Lions Club legal.

Main Street remains Main Street, divided East and West. It was so named at the time of the town's incorporation in 1896, having been changed from York Street. It would seem that the earlier name was given when York and Adams Counties were one and York Street was a part of the road that led to the county seat. Also, it was on the Pony Express route between York and Hagerstown.

Retain Centennial St.

Centennial Street was opened the year of the great celebration in Philadelphia commemorating the anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. That name has been unchanged because from its beginning it represented a momentous event. Water Street came by its name in a rather ironical, yet realistic, manner. It was the center of the town's drainage system. It is remembered by the older folks that usually, before proper drains were installed, the street was covered with water after a heavy rain. The name is no longer significant but the residents who live there, being accustomed to it, asked that it continue to be Water Street. But for this, the street would have been named McGinley Drive.

Water Street winds its way beyond the town's limits through the former McGinley farms and to McGinley's Hill. The McGinleys were prominent residents during the years before and after the Civil War. Incidents of interest and importance took place on these farms when Jeb Stuart visited this section of Pennsylvania to gather supplies. A name so much a part of the area could not be omitted. In the future the "back road to Emmitsburg," and more recently known as South Street, will be McGinley Drive.

Extend Miller St.

No named monument remained to the memory of Squire William Miller, Fairfield's founder, until the Borough Council on April 6, 1959, by resolution changed the popular name of the street which led to the Western Maryland Railroad station from Railroad Avenue to North Miller Street. This is most proper because it was along this street that the Miller property lay. The barn on the James Landis farm was that of

Squire Miller. South Miller was originally called Washington Street because a man by that name lived there.

It was thought important to carry the name Miller along the full length of the street. However, the southern end of it could well have been called Balder because it was there that Lt. Christian Balder, of the 6th Regiment of the New York Regulars, was mortally wounded. He died in the Swope house. The event was not overlooked and the street two blocks west which was at one time referred to as West Street and still later Chestnut has been officially designated Balder Street.

Squire Miller himself in 1801 named the street that lies between Miller and Balder Streets. He chose to refer to it as Spring Street because of the fine spring of water which is found there.

McGinley Drive

South of and parallel to West Main Street and extending from South Spring Street to McGinley Drive is the newly ordained Steelman Street. Modern bus transportation for school children made the planning of this street necessary, but out of respect to the past came its name. In Liberty Township not far off Route 16 stands a monument erected by the Pennsylvania Historical Society in memory of John Hanson Steelman, Indian trader and interpreter. Mr. Steelman, who was the first white man to cross the Susquehanna River, lived in the area until his pioneering spirit urged him onward and westward. North and parallel to West Main Street is Franklin Street so ordained by the town council in appreciation of the efforts of Frank Bishop, building contractor, who, to promote the growth of Fairfield, purchased land on which he laid out lots and built houses. Mr. Bishop donated a strip of land 1,917 feet long and 40 feet wide to the borough for the road way.

Honor Thaddeus Stevens

It is interesting to note that the Honorable Thaddeus Stevens played a part in the history of Fairfield during the earlier part of the 19th century. He and James Paxton owned the iron furnace just west of the town which was named Maria for Paxton's wife. Maria was also the daughter of Squire William Miller, the town's founder. Stevens was a frequent visitor in the town usually staying at the hotel which is still in use. It is appropriate that the most western street connecting Main and Franklin Streets be named Stevens Street.

With today's mode of transportation, it is convenient to have directional signs with names located at the entrance of rural roads. This Lions Club project extends to some of those just beyond the borough lines. The reasons for their names has been lost so one can only guess why there is the Bull Frog Road, the Cold Springs Road, Mt. Hope and the Jack Road.

"Carroll's Delight"

One of the most delightful of the early names is "Carroll's Delight." How significant and how descriptive was that name by which the Carrolls of Maryland knew this area which they claimed as part of their province. Their dream of building their estate here was ended when Mason and Dixon drew the line which separates Maryland and Pennsylvania and made it a part of Pennsylvania. This bit of history made a lasting impression on the area. From that time to the present the Carroll's Tract Road, sometimes shortened to the Upper and Lower Tract Roads, has been known as that.

It is difficult to change the names, roads, or villages when they have been long known to the residents. The task for Fairfield will not be too great because in most cases the early names have been forgotten. The townspeople are deeply appreciative of this project which has been sponsored by the Lions Club and supported by the town council for the residents. The Blue Ridge Pipe and Nipple Company has generously contributed the steel pipes on which the signs are mounted.

Having street signs will not alter the everyday life of the people of Fairfield. They will go about their tasks as usual but anything, even as small as this endeavor, can fill them with pride and gratitude for those who contributed to the progress and well-being of their home town.

3:15 and 7 to 7:30 p.m. Holy Communion will be distributed outside of Mass on Friday at 5:45 and 7 a.m., with Mass at 7:30 a.m.

Prayer meeting will be held in the Assembly of God Church, along the Fish and Game Rd., Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Joachin showed a film entitled "What Makes Us Tick?" concerning the stock market, about which he later spoke. The program was in charge of the classification and membership committee, Theron W. Spangler, chairman. One visiting Rotarian, Elmer Warren, Hanover, was introduced.

Induction of new members will take place at the meeting next Tuesday at 6:15 p.m. at Schott's. A report on the Rotary International convention will be given. The club service committee comprises Charles E. Rabenstein, chairman, Nevaeh A. Crouse, Paul A. King, Luther D. Snyder, Howard A. Stoner and J. Emory Weaver.

Reports were heard from Secretary Ronald Crouse and Treasurer Harry Hess. Applications for membership were received from Edward Reindollar and Wilmer L. Barnes Jr.

Plans were furthered for the annual company carnival August 22-27. Glenn Mummert, general chairman for the carnival, distributed books to the members. Cash prizes will be given each evening and the grand prize, a 1960 automobile, will be given on the concluding night of the carnival. Special entertainment is being arranged for each evening. There will be rides, games, exhibits, refreshments, concessions, etc.

Says 'Voice' Told Him To 'Kill'

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Theodore Shaynick, 40, walked into police headquarters Tuesday and told officers he had stabbed to death a fellow roomer because a "voice" commanded him to kill. He turned over a 2½ inch blade.

Officers went to the rooming house and found Paul Hankiewicz, 53, lying dead in a second-floor hall. Officers said he had been stabbed 30 or 40 times.

Shaynick was quoted by police as having said he had spent time in a mental institution on the West Coast and that the "voice" had spoken to him before but this was the first time it ordered him to kill.

He was charged with homicide.

WRITERS IRK YAWKEY; MAY MOVE CLUB OUT

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
BOSTON (AP) — Boston Red Sox owner Tom Yawkey is so fed up with the treatment his team is getting from local sports writers he has dropped a hint he may move the team from Boston.

But multimillionaire Yawkey, in a rare news conference, said he will go along with Billy Jurgas as manager of the seventh-place team. Later he qualified his remarks about moving the club.

He made a surprise appearance in the press room atop Fenway Park just before Tuesday night's Boston-Washington game. Yawkey dropped several hints he may move the team if the writers don't quit riding the club. He chided the reporters gently at first, then not so gently.

Grills Reporters
"How many of you guys think you're qualified to manage a ball club?" he demanded.

He fixed one reporter with a stare.

"Do you?"
"No, I don't think I'm qualified," the reporter answered.

"You're damn right you're not," Yawkey snapped.

No Plans To Sell
"Sometimes it goes beyond the bounds of human dignity and reason," he said. "I don't put up with it. I don't have to. Just remember I've got the last word. I always have the last word. I've got an ace in the hole. And I'll use it if I have to. There's an innuendo there I think you all understand."

Later, however, Yawkey said he has no present plans to move or sell the club.

"That's for the future to decide," he said.
Earlier, he and general manager Bucky Harris released a statement spiking published reports Jurgas was on his way out.

Blacks In South Africa Certain Bloody Revolution Is Coming; Kill All Whites

By SAUL PETT
JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—How angry, how restless are the natives of South Africa under the white man's rule?

No public opinion polls cover this part of the world but there are some clues.

A black man working on a railroad or in a construction gang raises his sledgehammer, brings it down hard and, with deep fury, chants in Zulu: "Abeingo God damn basi biza o Jim."

"There's No Doubt!" Translation: "The whites, God damn them, they call us Jim." Or Charlie or Henry or boy or any name the white man chooses except the right one.

"We are ready to fight if guns ever come down from the north," a young native student told me. "There is no doubt; some day we will have a revolution," said a native teacher.

"We'll Be Blind!" "And the worst part of the tragedy," said a young native writer, "is that when it comes, we will be blind. We will have to shoot the whites we like and the whites we don't like. There will be no time to distinguish."

But all of them agreed that the great mass of natives are still far from revolt because they are politically uninformed.

We were talking in a smoke-filled, crowded, candle-lit shebeen, a speakeasy. In South Africa, blacks are prohibited by white man's law from drinking liquor.

Tell About Troubles
This shebeen was in a huge housing development outside of Johannesburg, where the government has replaced the dirty old shacks of metal sheets and clay floors with new larger houses of concrete or cinder block.

More than a dozen natives crowded around me in the dinette of a neat, three-room house run by the "queen" of the shebeen. Cool jazz came from a record player in the corner. The Africans assembled wore Western clothes and some had the little beards symbolic of jazz fiends everywhere.

But jazz wasn't on their minds. In perfect English, they told an American reporter of their troubles and hopes.

Forming Underground
"With the arrogance of the present government, which we can't even consult," said the writer, "there ultimately can be no other way but revolution. We won't settle for anything less than full equal rights."

"But remember, chaps," said the teacher, "only about three-eighths of our people know what's going on. The rest know nothing. With all our leaders in jail, there is no one to educate or lead them."

"Yes, but an underground is forming," said another man. "We will have a new organization and the day after the state of emergency is lifted, there will be more Sharpevilles, more riots, more bloodshed."

A fat little man suddenly grabbed my lapels.

"I Had A Friend"

"I had a friend, a teacher, I knew from boyhood," he said. "He was arrested for a pass book offense. He was tough and he was brave and he wouldn't be pushed around. They took him to a prison farm where he probably objected to something—you don't object to anything in a prison farm."

"He was killed. He was beaten to death. I know because I saw the marks on his body and I buried him."

Most of the native political unrest comes from the cities. Those in the country hear little of politics. But at one Zulu reserve, I found an exception, a native chief.

The Irony Of Progress

"We want to be free of colonialism, we want to own our own land," he said. "We want a voice in Parliament. We don't want to throw the white man out. We want to share his leadership. But above all, we don't want violence."

The black man, especially those in the urban areas, has come far under the white man's rule. Generally, he eats better, lives better, earns more by African standards, gets more education, more medical attention. But the irony of progress, so far as the government is concerned, is that those who have advanced the most in education suffer the most from the claustrophobia of apartheid or separation of the races.

Apartheid is not new. The white man has been corralling and segregating the black man ever since he came to South Africa 300 years ago. The segregation is total.

Tight Controls
The native of South Africa can not vote or join a union or strike or hold a skilled job in a white area. There's little call for skilled workers in black areas. He can not buy his own home in the new urban housing locations.

He can not use the white man's elevator or train or bus or theater or park bench or wash room or restaurant or even the counter at the post office.

He must carry a pass book of

Race Commission Sent Vote Bill

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A bill for $18,763 has been sent to the State Harness Racing Commission for the cost of the pari-mutuel betting referendum in April.

The Allegheny County commissioners sent the bill Tuesday to cover the cost of preparing special ballots, advertising and mailing.

Allegheny County voters rejected the proposal to legalize pari-mutuel betting on harness racing.

COURT LIFTS BAN ON AD ON AUTO CLAIMS

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—A temporary court injunction banning Washington newspapers from publishing an advertisement about litigated auto accident claims has been withdrawn.

In withdrawing the injunction Tuesday, Judge Roy I. Carson of Washington County said to continue the ban would be futile since the advertisement and newspaper stories about the controversy have been so widely distributed.

The ad, published in the Washington Observer and Reporter May 24, was sponsored by the identification at all times and get it signed once a month by his employer or be arrested. He must get permission to change jobs or visit another town or, as in many cases where a couple is separated by different jobs, he must get a special permit to visit his wife for a few evening hours. He can not be out on the streets after 11 p.m. without a special permit. And for all these symbols of white man's permission he must queue up outside government offices and wait in line for hours.

He Means To Stay
The great majority of whites, both English and Afrikaners, support total segregation. But it is the Afrikaner nationalist who resists any change or modification most bitterly. Many English feel they can always go home. The Afrikaner regards this as his only homeland.

For 300 years, he has been proud of his identity. He has fought savages and the wilderness and the British and he means to stay here, at all costs, under white rule.

Next: Hi-fi and evil spirits.

Senate Committee Approves Projects

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Public Works Committee Tuesday authorized $1,547,016,352 for navigation, flood control and river basin projects.

Many of the projects have been approved by the House in an omnibus rivers and harbors bill. Projects added by the Senate committee must be approved by the house if the full senate approves the bill.

It is an authorization bill only. Money for actual planning and of construction must be approved separately.

Washington Assn. of Independent Insurance Agents.

It said that Washington County, out of 12 counties surveyed, had the highest proportion of claims reaching court, the highest percentage of verdicts for plaintiffs and the highest average jury awards.

The injunction was granted to three attorneys who claimed further publication of the ad would influence jurors hearing testimony in auto accident cases. The Reporter and Observer charged the injunction violated freedom of speech and the press.

SIGNS TO WARN ON LITTERING

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania motorists soon will be seeing signs warning of the new $100 fine for littering highway.

Green and white signs, measuring two by three feet, now are being posted on state roads in Monroe, McKean, Potter, Elk, Cameron, Clinton, Clearfield, Centre and Mifflin Counties.

The Highways Department said Tuesday the work will be done in the rest of the state as soon as possible.

The 1959 Legislature increased the maximum fine for throwing rubbish and wastes along the roads from $25 to $100.

The department said at least five of the warning signs will be installed for each 100 miles of the state highways in each county. It estimated a total of more than 2,000 signs would be erected.

TIRIED, STALE HOUR-LONG TV SHOW IS FLOP

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Nanette Fabray, Tony Randall and some other talented performers took an hour Tuesday night to demonstrate conclusively that even the best entertainers need decent material.

It was an interminable 60 minutes on NBC devoted to a musical of sorts called "So Help Me, Aphrodite." The plot was reverse Walter Mitty—the diner waitress who dreams she's Marie Antoinette and Pocahontas in turn as the comedy-type truck drivers became courtiers and braves.

The basic idea was tired, the lines were stale, and the whole thing defied the efforts of Miss Fabray and Randall.

Old Enough To Know

Big league television is over 10 years old now. That's time enough for it to have learned that original musical comedies just aren't its dish. At least it hasn't been able to come up with a credible effort yet. Tuesday night's effort should result in putting that art form permanently off TV limits.

Steve Allen turned out one of his worst shows in a below-average season Monday mostly by turning over the lion's share of it to Phil Harris. Harris apparently hasn't learned the difference between vulgarity and comedy. Jonathan Winters was the one redeeming feature.

Recommended tonight: "Music for a Summer Night," ABC, 7:30-8:30—with Kitty Carlisle, hostess, and music designed for outdoor concerts; Perry Como Show, NBC, 9-10—final show of the season; Steel Hour, CBS, 10-11—"Game of Jeffs," with Betsy Palmer and Jeff Donnell.

Promote June As Pa. Dairy Month

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Lawrence said today Pennsylvania is one of the nation's great milk-producing states and urged the observance of June as dairy month in the Commonwealth.

Lawrence said milk production, processing and distribution fills an important sector of the state economy.

"It has become a tradition in Pennsylvania to make June a festival month, honoring our dairy industry," the governor said. "I urge each Pennsylvanian to join in this celebration."

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

"Learning," says an African tribal proverb, "is a light that leads to everything lovely." Lutheran missionaries Wes and Roslyn Sadler have brought the light into what was once the darkness of Loma land in the West African state of Liberia.

When Wes and Roslyn went to Loma land 18 years ago, the Loma tribe had no literature and its 30,000 members could not read.

The Sadlers prepared a primer in the Loma language and began to teach. Then came a dictionary, booklets on religion and health and the Loma Weekly, the only non-English language newspaper in Liberia.

Now with the Lomas buying about 16,000 booklets yearly and the newspaper selling out each edition, the Sadlers are taking on a new challenge.

They are heading the Africa-wide work for the Committee on World Literacy and Christian Literature of the National Council of Churches, training missionaries and African literacy projects.

Their goal: Knowledge and faith—the light that leads to everything lovely.

SPIVAK WILL PLAY HERSHEY

HERSHEY, Pa.—Charlie Spivak, who lives up to his billing as "The Man Who Plays the Sweetest Trumpet in the World," brings his top-flight orchestra to the Starlight Ballroom of Hershey Park Saturday.

Always a sweet band and winner of the coveted Downbeat poll in that category, Spivak is placing more emphasis on soft, danceable melodies than ever before. He features his trumpet practically all the time. He also leans toward ballads.

Spivak has come a long way since the days when he was known as one of the greatest jazz trumpeters. He has established records at New York's Statler Hotel and the Paramount Theater on Broadway, mecca for dance bands. One of the managers at the Statler summed up the Spivak performance when he said, "Spivak blows clear enough for all to hear but people can still carry on a conversation."

For many years before forming his own band, Charlie Spivak was rated as the most sought after free lance trumpeter in the country. He played with radio's leading conductors on the most important programs and was featured with such bands as the Dorsey Brothers, Ray Noble and Ben Pollack.

Farm Prices For Mid-May Are Up

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania farm prices in mid-May were 3 per cent lower than the previous month but 7 per cent higher than the same period in 1959, the State Agriculture Department reports.

The decline in prices in mid-May was mainly because by lower wholesale prices for milk and eggs the department said Tuesday.

Prices for livestock and live-stock products averaged 4 per cent lower than the previous month and prices received for crops was some 2 per cent lower.

The department said the wholesale price for milk was $4.35 per hundredweight, about 25 cents less than in April and egg prices averaged 37 cents a dozen, about 6 cents lower.

In rebuilding its famed amusement park, the Prater, the city of Vienna had high hedges planted to hide the romantically inclined couples from the "peeping-toms" riding the nearby roller coasters.

START BOOM FOR JOHNSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Full-page newspaper advertisements supporting Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas for the Democratic presidential nomination are appearing in 15 cities across the country.
The ads, under the heading "Who Shall Lead Us?" are signed by 181 persons, including Govs. Price Daniel of Texas and Buford Ellington of Tennessee, House Speaker Sam Rayburn, and Louis Johnson, former secretary of Defense.
The advertisement indirectly attacked what it said was the youth and inexperience of Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts as contrasted with the Senate Democratic leader. It called for a nationwide telegraphic and letter appeal to Johnson urging him to become an active candidate for the nomination.
The drivers of a truck and automobile which collided on the Davidsburg Rd., four miles east of East Berlin at 1:30 p.m. Monday, causing an estimated $1,550 damage, required treatment at the Hanover Hospital, state police reported.
The truck driver, Gordon Steffe, 51, York, was treated for body bruises and shock and John A. Ruhlman Jr., 35, York Springs R. 2, multiple lacerations and internal injuries, according to police.
Police said a tractor trailer being driven eastwardly on the highway by Steffe jackknifed at the approach of a one-lane bridge, forcing the Ruhlman automobile off the highway. They estimated damage to the truck, owned by Penn Dairies Inc., Lancaster, at $1,200, and the passenger vehicle, $350.
NEW YORK (AP)—One reason the Yankees obtained Roger Maris from Kansas City was his impressive hitting of last spring. In the first eight games against the Yankees in 1959, Maris made 12 hits in 15 trips to the plate.

ROCKEFELLER LAUDS IKE ON SUMMIT ACTS

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said Tuesday night that Americans can be proud of President Eisenhower for his conduct at the summit conference wrecked by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.
Rockefeller spoke off the cuff before an overflow crowd of more than 800 members of the New York County Republican Committee.
Although the governor made no reference to his own political future, each time other speakers linked his name with the presidency or the vice presidency there was enthusiastic applause and cheers. The governor just smiled.

Laborer For Peace

Rockefeller said Eisenhower has labored for peace, freedom and equal opportunity. He said he thinks the world recognizes the "sincerity, integrity and dedication of this great president."

Children, Money Proven "Sources Of Happiness"

NEW YORK (AP)—Children and sufficient money are the major sources of happiness for Americans.
Debts and insufficient housing—not enough money, in other words—are the major reasons for unhappiness.
These are among the basic findings of a nationwide mental health inventory of the average U.S. citizens, taken by the University of Michigan's Survey Research Center. The results were made public Tuesday night.

Marriage Alone

The report said only 17 per cent of those surveyed said marriage alone made them happy, and only 14 per cent credited their jobs.
Only four per cent said they were unhappy (in 1957) because of world tensions and possibility of war.

The survey results are in a book, titled "Americans View Their Mental Health." It is the fourth book in a series supported by the Joint Commission on Mental Illness and Health.
The survey was based on 2,460 interviews.

One of the conclusions was that older people find fewer shortcomings in themselves than do younger people. Another was: "Younger people are more involved in achievement and older people are more involved in considerations of the moral and the good."
On the question of how Americans handle their personal crises,

PRINCESS GRACE VISITS FATHER

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Princess Grace of Monaco, just in from Europe, went to the hospital today to see her 69-year-old father, John B. Kelly Sr., who was operated on Monday.

Dr. James A. Lehman, who performed the operation, said Kelly suffered from adhesions that wrapped around his intestines following an appendectomy last year. An adhesion is newly-grown tissue, usually resulting from surgery. Kelly's condition is satisfactory and he "should be able to leave the hospital about June 10 or 11," said Lehman.

Princess Grace, a former Hollywood movie queen, came here early this morning by limousine from New York, where she landed late Tuesday night after a flight from Monaco.

The annual Daily Vacation Bible School opened in the community Tuesday with the enrollment of 239 children. Sessions will be held each weekday through Friday, June 10, from 8:45 to 11 a.m. in the Rolling Acres Elementary School. Opening devotions are conducted in the general purpose room for the entire school and the boys and girls then reported to their assigned classrooms. Devotions are in charge of the Littlestown Ministerium, which sponsors the Bible School. During the morning the children have hand work, Bible study period and brief play recess outdoors. An offering is received daily to help defray the cost of the school materials.

The Bible School staff includes: Dean, Rev. Glenn Flinchbaugh, ministerium president; assistant to the dean, Edward B. Geiman II; chorister, Rev. William R. Jones; pianist, Mrs. Richard A. Little Jr.; secretary, Miss Sandra L. Hawk; assistant secretary, Miss Evelyn L. Koons; treasurer, Larry L. Unger; assistant treasurer, James L. Kroh; school nurse, Sharon Flinchbaugh.

The teachers and enrollment by classes follows: Nursery, four years old, 28 and the teacher is Mrs. Dale W. Starry; nursery, five-year-olds, 19, taught by Mrs. Charles E. Ritter; pre-school, six-year-olds, 16, Mrs. Robert H. Miller, teacher; first grade, 25, Rev. George Shultz Jr., pastor of St. Luke's United Church of Christ, teacher; Grade Two, 31, Rev. Mr. Flinchbaugh, pastor of Redeemer's United Church of Christ, teacher; Grade Three, 37, Rev. William C. Karns, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, teacher; Grade Four, 34, Rev. Mr. Jones, pastor of Centenary Methodist Church, teacher; Grade Five, 25, Rev. G. Howard Koons, pastor of Christ United Church of Christ, teacher; Grade Six, 24, taught by Mrs. Luther W. Ritter. Each teacher has a number of assistants, to be announced when organization of the school has been completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark F. Hare, Littlestown, visited on Sunday with his sister and mother, Mrs. Mary Lawrence and Mrs. Charles Hare, Prince St.

Miss Susan Strevig is spending the summer at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noah M. Strevig, W. King St. Extd., after completing her first year of studies at West Chester State College.

Bees are the only insects of importance in distribution of pollen to fruits during the period of blossom. Of these, the honey bee is the only one that can be distributed where wanted and when needed in the orchard.
